

LOTR: Road Trip

Week 14 Tuesday, July 14th Osakis

God Gathers Us To Connect Us To Him

REBECCA: Oh, I feel miserable...I think I have the flu...

TY: I'm sorry Rebecca – I know that's no fun...

ISAAC: You can't catch the flu from fish.

MOOSE: How would you know...you couldn't even catch any fish.

ISAAC: I caught one.

VEGAS: That sunny? It was so small the minnow threw it back.

ISAAC: This coming from the girl who was afraid to bait her hook.

ALICE: At first...but she did it...all of us did it. Rebecca I think I might be coming down with what you have...did you get the chills?

REBECCA: Yes...I still have them. I hope you don't get sick Alice. I want you to have fun today.

TY: Oh and we will have fun. Today we're working with the City of Osakis to help them landscape some of the bike trails by the lake. Rebecca, if you are feeling that bad, maybe you should go get some rest at the church.

REBECCA: I'll try to fight it for awhile.

SAUL: (waking up) Oh...feeling woozy...must go back to sleep or I may lose my youthful exuberance...

TY: You're still working Saul.(groans and falls back)

JEFF: I don't feel that great either. Seriously...does anybody have any ibuprofen? I feel like I have a fever.

REBECCA: I think I have something in my purse. Hang on, I know it's in here somewhere.

TY: Ahh...the woman's purse. A mysterious place where things magically appear. Oh look, a coupon for shampoo that expired 7 years ago...and here's my waffle iron...I knew that would come in handy sometime.

REBECCA: Here it is...and it's not expired. Here you go Jeff...oh you don't have any water.

JEFF: I'll be okay. Thanks Rebecca.

REBECCA: I feel your pain...you know what I don't have in here is some Kleenexes. Can we stop somewhere Ty?

JEFF: Maybe we could some flu medicine too...I don't think this is going away soon.

TY: And I forgot to have you pack work gloves. You'll need em today. I'm pretty sure there's a Walmart in Sauk Centre. That's just a few minutes from here...

ALICE: I love Walmart! They have everything in there!

SAUL: Everything? Do they have unicorns?

MOOSE: Yeah – they're in the produce section...get it uniCORN?

VEGAS: I don't like going there...it seems too big and there's so many people.

ALICE: But it's the place to get everything you need...

ISAAC: Yeah they have their own hair cut place and you can get contacts and glasses.

JEFF: Family pictures...

REBECCA: Pharmacy...

ALICE: We got a swimming pool there...

SAUL: Ho-Hos...

MOOSE: Guns and knives...(everyone looks at him) What? I hunt.

TY: I heard they are going to have their own mortuary – caskets with the smiley face on it.

VEGAS: That's dumb...and not true.

JEFF: I heard they were starting their own government. Right next to the shoe department..

VEGAS: Lies. Walmart doesn't have everything. I don't know it just seems like an evil empire to me.

ALICE: Evil? How can you say that when they always have adorable old people greeting you at the door?

ISAAC: My grandma's a Walmart greeter. She really likes it.

TY: I was a Walmart greeter...but then I got fired.

MOOSE: You got fired from Walmart?

VEGAS: He's lying.

TY: That Edith...she didn't like it that I took some of her hours. Ratted me out and told management I was using smiley stickers for personal use.

VEGAS: Told you he was lying.

REBECCA: There's Walmart up there on the left. Just in time...I feel like I could AAACHOOO!
Oh no once I get started it's AAACHOOO!

ALICE: Uggghhh...I hate getting sick. Can I go with you to get some medicine Rebecca?

JEFF: Yeah me too. It's hitting me like a brick wall.

REBECCA: Sure you can AAAAAAAAAAACHOOO!

SAUL: Okay I think I saw something abandon ship that time. Everybody out!

MOOSE: Hey Ty...I need to get some more socks. Can I run in with them?

TY: Uh huh. I have to go in to get work gloves remember. All of you might as well go in.

SAUL: I'm getting Ho-Hos! I like to peel off all the chocolate outside and save the creamy filling for last.

ISAAC: I'm gonna get an ESPN Magazine. Go Twins!!!

TY: How about it Vegas...wanna cross over into enemy territory?

VEGAS: Well...I could use some lip gloss...

(ALL GET OUT AND WALK TOWARDS LEFT SIDE OF SANCTUARY WHERE JANE IS GREETING)

JANE: Good morning...welcome to Walmart.

TY: Edith! So they transferred you out of there. Serves you right! (WALKS OFF WITH THE REST RIGHT BEHIND HIM)

JANE: (looking bewildered) Who's Edith?
