

Why Trust Jesus? Prophecy and Preparation

Week 5

What Are You Talking About?

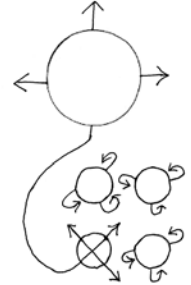

For people to learn how you see yourself they would listen to what you say about yourself. But they wouldn't stop there. They would also look to see what you do and don't do. Your actions would probably say as much about you as your words do.

For you to find out how you see yourself you would do the same. You would pay attention to what you feel about yourself. You would also go by what you do and don't do. It could be that your feelings or words and your actions don't always give the same message.

How do you find out how God sees you? You do the same thing. You would listen to what He says about you...you see how He acts toward you and what He does to show you how looks at you.

Actually, we will begin to learn that by looking at both what is said about Him as well as what He says about you. Then we will look at what He did so we can get a picture of what His actions reveal about His feelings and thoughts toward you.

This week we will center our attention on what is said about Him and His life. Next week, we see what His crucifixion, resurrection and ascension say Him and us. We will also look at what He is doing today and what that says

Goal: Share what there is about Jesus that builds trust.

If you don't know the full story behind these two, you may have to research it a little. This shows how we were handicapped by SIN, but God lifted us up to Him and we live!
